

My constitutional Right to Privacy should never be superceded by anything short of National Security. And I do not believe anyone calling my private residence for solicitation of any kind (including asking me to contribute my time) is an issue of National Security.

It is no wonder that most Americans have no respect for thier government. Don the right thing and ban ALL solicitations PERIOD.